

roger ross williams

director | producer | writer

bio

roger ross williams wrote and directed the 2010 academy award short film winner, "music by prudence", which also premiered on hbo in may to great critical acclaim. the film has had a significant global impact, attracting the attention of celebrities and politicians, prompting interviews on cnn's larry king and npr's morning edition, and a u.s. tour for prudence and the band.

williams began his career as a producer of political satire for comedy central and michael moore's emmy award winning series tv nation.

soon following, his tv news credits include nbc nightly news, msnbc, the today show, abc news, cnn, and the highly rated barbara walters specials for abc. at abc news williams also wrote and produced for critically acclaimed specials including the abc news aids special "sex, drugs & consequences", the youth culture special "power of one" and the one-hour documentary series "life 360" for abc news nightline and pbs.

since then williams has produced and directed numerous television specials for pbs, abc, the sundance channel, and showtime.

as a writer, williams' columns have appeared online on aol's the hub and the style channel.

currently williams has several projects in development, including a feature narrative film on the african american baptist church, called black sheep.

to see roger ross williams' work or for an extended resume please contact elevation talent agency at 212•582•8052